

Questions for Leaders

As leaders we must continue to evaluate our leadership of others and ourselves in order to become better leaders. Below are a number of questions we should ask ourselves regularly:

Question 1 - Am I investing in me? How?

Question 2 - Am I genuinely interested in the people I lead? How?

People we lead ask three questions of us:

1. Does my leader care for me?
2. Can I trust my leader?
3. Can my leader help me achieve my goals?

Question 3 - Am I doing what I love? How?

Question 4 - Am I investing my time with the right people? How?

(John Maxwell says, the right people are people of capacity, character and commitment)

Question 5 - Am I staying in my strengths? How?

Question 6 - Am I taking people to a higher level? How?

Question 7 - Am I taking care of today? How?

Question 8 - Am I taking time to think? How?

Question 9 - Am I developing leaders? How?

(Maxwell says 95% of leaders do not develop leaders)

Question 10 - Am I pleasing God? How?
